

Refugee Health Series

For GPs, Refugee Health Nurses and Practice Nurses

Refugee Health Programs from the Northern Division of General Practice, the Dandenong Casey General Practice Association and Pivot West, with Foundation House Brunswick, warmly invite you to participate in this refugee health series.

The series has a total of five sessions, with three at Foundation House Brunswick and one each at Pivot West and Dandenong.

40 Category 1 Active Learning Module (ALM) points applied for GPs; and Category 2 points will also be available for single sessions.

To be eligible for ALM points, GPs need to attend a minimum of three sessions and fulfill active learning requirements.

This training has been endorsed by APEC No. 06062789 as authorised by the RCNA according to approved criteria 2 CNE points

Fourth session topic: Refugee Paediatrics

With Dr Kirsty Walsh, Refugee Health Fellow (RCH)
and other speakers.

Date: Wednesday 8th September

Time: Session 7.15pm – 9.15pm
(Afghani dinner commencing from 6.45pm)

Venue: Afghan Masala Restaurant,
247 Thomas Street, Dandenong (Melways 91A, D6)
* Registration essential ****

See over page for: fax back section, program topics and learning objectives

Refugee Health Series - 2010

Remaining Program Topics

Wednesday 8th September – Refugee Paediatrics (at Afghan Masala Restaurant, Dandenong)
Wednesday 10 November - Mental Health Issues in Refugees (at Foundation House Brunswick)

Series Learning Objectives

- To improve the management of common and important conditions in refugees in Victoria, including: infectious diseases, immunization, sexual health and mental health
- To increase understanding of developmental issues in refugee children
- To increase strategies for effective and safe pain management for refugee patients with chronic pain
- To improve use of the refugee health assessment in general practice
- To increase understanding of referral networks in refugee health such as refugee health nurses, refugee health fellows, refugee health clinics, settlement workers, Foundation House.
- To increase development of register reminder recall systems for refugee patients

Participants are invited to bring cases to discuss at sessions

Enquiries: Dr I-Hao Cheng ph: 8792 1900 (Dandenong Casey General Practice Association)
Kay Dufty ph: 8480 4609 (Northern Division)
Sonia Zahra ph: 9689 4566 (Pivot West)
Louise Crowe ph: 9389 8909 (Foundation House)

This organisation has Accredited Provider status with the RACGP QA&CPD Program

Please register your attendance for session four: Refugee Paediatrics
(8th September - Afghan Masala Restaurant, 247 Thomas Street, Dandenong)
by faxing this form to Dandenong Casey General Practice Association on: 9793 4050

Name: _____

Role: GP QA&CPD Number: _____

Practice Nurse / Refugee Health Nurse Div 1 Div 2

Practice: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____ Email: _____

Special Dietary Requirements: _____

Please note: A cancellation fee of $30.00 (GST Exclusive) will apply to registered participants who do not attend or fail to cancel by 5pm on Monday 6th September 2010.

Confirmation of Place: (Office use only)	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes you are registered to attend
	<input type="checkbox"/> Your name has been placed on waiting list